Job Description

We are looking for experienced, adventurous and self-motivated volunteers who can perform and teach a range of circus, theatre and other performance skills whilst travelling to India, Nicaragua or Kenya on a PWB tour. Volunteers will be generally spending up to a month at a time with various groups of disadvantaged children with partner organisations (such as orphanages & schools), teaching the children and performing in the local area. You will have to fundraise around £900 for the tour between Sept and Dec 2018 and also pay for flights and other travel expenses.

PWB candidates should demonstrate things like the following:

- Having a mid to high level of skill in one or more circus skill or performing art
- Experience teaching to mixed groups of children and young people
- Experience of devising and performing shows and working in a team
- Be self-motivated and highly committed with good communication skills
- Have a mature and professional attitude to work and touring life/demands
- Experience of facilitating/living/working in a group situation
- Experience of working in social circus/community/charity sector
- Be confident in fostering a positive team experience

First applications - open 1st June to 1st July 2018

Second applications – opens from 1st Aug to 14th Aug 2018
